AND HENRY COUNTY NEWS.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF CITY AND CO.
NAPOLEON, OHIO, JANUARY 24, 1895.

JUDGE RICKS is censured, the impeachment resolution being voted down by the Judiciary Committee 7 to 9. The Judge gets off easy.

LUCAS BAKER, who has just been selected as U. S. Senator in Kansas, was formerly a Fulton county boy. The Ohio man continues to "get there."

THE new Ohio Jury law has been declared constitutional by the Supreme Court, but the court was not unanimous in its decision, two of the Judges dissenting.

ADJUTANT GENERAL HOWE says in his report that the O. N. G. during the past year has created a deficiency of $140,000. That's a big sum for the tax-payers of the State to make up.

SENATOR BRICE has ordered to be distributed among the Hocking Valley sufferers 100 barrels of flour, 100 tons of coal, and has given to them $200 in money. This is a kind act in the Senator and it is not the first time his generosity has been felt by the needy.

IN the face of the requirements of the statutes the Republican commissioners of Franklin county have resolved that none of their printing shall be done in a Democratic newspaper for the ensuing year. What a howl would go up from the Republican camp if Democrats would do such a thing as that. But it might be wholesome for Democrats to retaliate a little.

YOUNGSTOWN Vindicator: Democratic prospects are bright and growing more so every day and with returning property will come renewed strength and courage, and when the next election shall dawn, our Republican friends will find the Democracy a rejuvenated giant—terrible in its earnestness and glorious in its capacity for doing good to the people.

CASIMIR-PERIER having resigned the Presidency of France has been succeeded by M. Felix Faure. Faure was selected on the second ballot amid the greatest excitement, as the monarchists took advantage of the change of Presidents to set up their claims and predict the overthrow of the Republic. Even the Duke of Orleans, the pretender to the throne of France, issued a manifesto in which he says he is ready to ascend the throne. France is not likely to fall back into a monarchy.

A TRUE bill of manslaughter has been returned against Col. Coit of the historical 14th, by the grand jury of Fayette county, for the wholesale killing done there on Oct. 17th last. A change of venue will be asked. If Col. Coit is convicted and sentenced, however light, it is said by Columbus papers that Gov. McKinley will unconditionally pardon him before he reaches the pen. If Col. Coit should be found guilty by a jury, why should Governor McKinley pardon him any more than any other murderer—Jackson Herald.

So long as a Democrat occupied the Prosecuting Attorney's office it was thought good enough, but now that a Republican is in the office the Signal thinks it is an abominable place, and not fit for occupancy, and it is shrieking for new quarters for the Prosecutor. We are afraid the tax payers of Henry county will see their mistake in placing Republicans in office sooner than was expected, as experience in this line has already been quite dear in Henry county. The county commissioners should not lend a willing ear to these Republican extravagances and should draw the reins upon them at the outstart.

WELL, if this week's NORTHWEST don't skin the prince of dissemblers, we'll stand a round of the best in the shanty.—McClure Free Press.
Prince of dissemblers! That's pretty rough on the Signal editor. We turn to Webster and find that to dissemble means "to conceal the real fact, motives, intention or sentiments, under some pretense; to assume a false appearance; to act the hypocrite." And Webster then quotes from Josh. VII, 11: "And have also stolen, and dissembled also." And he defines dissembler as "one who conceals his opinions or dispositions under a false appearance; a hypocrite," and then quotes from Bacon: "It is the weakest sort of politicians that are the greatest dissemblers." Verily, Bro. Russell has many sins to answer for.

A TAX on incomes is different from a tax on property, for whereas property is often taxed one fourth the amount it profits the owner, while the income tax is only two per cent on profits. The income tax takes from a person only one fifth of his profits, or income for the year, while a property tax may take one tenth, one fourth, one half, or even all of his profits. Take for example a person whose means are invested in a business building, for which he has not been able to find a renter for but one month out of twelve; the property tax takes all his income for the property. Another example would be a farm during a year of drought—no income at all, perhaps, and yet a tax. The income tax only reaches those who have been fortunate during the year—whose gains have been more than $4,000 more than their losses. The old income tax law levied a much heavier tax than the present tax, and yet it worked no hardship for it called for only a portion of the year's profits. A man with a million income a year only pays $20,000 under the present law, whereas one hundred thousand and would not be a burden on him—he would have nine hundred thousand and left as his year's profits.

What They Addressed.
The Call recently addressed the following enquiry to a local Democratic leader at each of 1,000 important post-offices in Ohio: "What, in your individual opinion, should be the issue or issues in the coming State campaign?"

The answers may be classified as follows:
308—State issues alone.
231—State issues and silver coinage.
105—State issues and tariff reform.
192—State issues, tariff reform and silver coinage.
26—Free coinage alone.
31—Tariff reform alone.
47—Failed to respond.

We submit this census of public opinion to the leaders and counselors of the party.
While a little over 500 were inclined to think that two or even three issues might wisely be made, 896 out of 953 answering declare that State issues should stand first and foremost.

And their views are entitled to a vast deal of consideration.—Columbus Call.

Comparatively Honest.
The State Journal is awfully wrought up over the fact that the Democrats of Tennessee are going to steal a Governor by legislative action, when the face of the returns show the election of a Republican.

This it denounces as the most infamous crime ever attempted.
In California the Tennessee condition is exactly reversed. A Democrat was elected on the face of the returns, and a Republican Legislature set about counting him out.

This the Journal lauds as the acme of sublime patriotism and sublimated honesty.
The Journal cannot be accused of being hopelessly dishonest. It is not in favor of a steal that is not in the interest of its own party.

It only justifies a robbery when it shares in the proceeds.

It has not read the lives of the old pirate captains in vain.—Columbus Call.

Farmers' Institute.

The fifth annual session of the Henry County Farmers' Institute Association was held in the opera house in Napoleon on Friday and Saturday last, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather was largely attended and was a success throughout. The State lecturers were Hon. Alva Kacy, of Chicago, and Dr. Isaac Kacy, of Tiffin, both of whom read interesting papers and spoke entertainingly upon farm subjects. The recitations by home talent, interspersed throughout the different sessions of the Institute, were well received by appreciative audiences and all of those taking part reflected much credit upon themselves and the Institute. The program as prepared originally was carried out in the main, there being but few changes, and we believe it was one of the best prepared and most successful of the kind ever held in this county. For this society is indebted to the untiring efforts of President Pontious and Secretary Davis, both of whom performed their duties faithfully.

We take the following from Secretary Davis' report:

The committee on nomination gave their report as follows: For President, A. C. Senter; Vice-President, B. F. Pontious; Secretary, J. C. Davis; Treasurer, M. J. Grimes; Executive Committee, L. W. Brubaker, George Rickes, John Smith, Wm. Tubbs and E. M. Hollinger.

The report was accepted and adopted. The committee on resolutions made their report but it is not in our possession.

The Secretary had a number of interesting and agricultural reports which were distributed.

Attendance 435; average attendance for five sessions was 316.

Our farmers' institutes are fast coming into public favor, notwithstanding the fact that there are a few men in our country who have an enlargement of the head instead of the heart, who claim the institutes cost too much, and that the lecturers and people who support them are cranks.

We are glad to be called cranks for we learn that cranks move the world, and we think that progressive farmers should not and can not afford to let such opportunities pass unimproved. We know, however, there are many who know too much already, and of course are disappointed when they attend a farmers' institute, and think the institutes are not worthy of their attendance. This may be considered quite reasonable, for "When ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise," but we are pleased to know that there are some who do not know enough, and are willing to learn and desire to make the world better for their having lived in it.

The New Science Review, for January, the third issue of this attractive quarterly of science, fully keeps up the high standard attained in its two preceding numbers, and is likely to add to the favor with which the promising enterprise has been everywhere received. It contains several articles of notable character, among them one by Major-General Dryden, dealing with that subject of reform in educational methods which attracted so much attention to Mr. Jordan's paper on "Mental Training," in the October number; Grant Allen, in "The Master in Science," deals in his well-known sparkling manner with a side issue of the same interesting subject. The question of "What Electricity Is," propounded in the October number, has elicited forth a number of well written replies, which deal with this important query from various points of view. Among the other articles, special attention may be called to General Cowell's paper on the "Union of Astronomy and Geology;" Lord Rayleigh's consideration of "The New Element in the Atmosphere;" the illustrated article on "The Elevers," contributed by Baroness Althea Salvador; Charles Morris's timely paper on "The Railroad in Asia;" and Major Handy's valuable account of "The World's Cables," which is illustrated by a very useful map, showing the locations of the various cable lines. There are several other articles of interest, a series of "Notes on the Progress of Science," and a department of "Reviews," which is a new and important addition to the magazine.

ENTHUSIASTIC

For the Building of the New Road!

The Napoleon, Deshler & Northwestern Railway.

An enthusiastic meeting of the incorporators and many of those interested on and along the line of the proposed Napoleon, Deshler & Northwestern Railroad was held in Napoleon on Tuesday. From the large attendance and the interest manifested in the proposed improvement, and that the people along the route of the new road were awake and ready to take hold of the project. A committee was appointed at this meeting, whose duty it was to solicit subscriptions, right of way, and have a survey made of the route, so that the project can be got under way as soon as possible.

It is reported that substantial aid is forthcoming for the building of the new road, but if the Wabash Co. could be prevailed upon to become interested it would assure the completion of the road without peradventure. It certainly would afford the Wabash an excellent eastern and southeast outlet.

But let the road be built by all means.
